

8 October, 2013

Body

Should the SC body be

- exclusive (traditional)
- nonhierarchical (not president)

Hovhannes - we need a president for presenting the SC. It will be more efficient to have a hierarchical form of SC.

Hayk - nonhierarchical, I think too much experience is needed before running a hierarchical team, we can just divide the jobs and that's all.

Vacheh - nonhierarchical

Ani - I think it would be better to start from nonhierarchical and continue with having a president (after knowing each other) (the answer no)

Hovsep - same as Ani

Hilda - agrees with Hayk,

Aram - hierarchical

Lana - jobs divided with nonhierarchical

Election

Aram - a candidate who already has x% of votes should be passed

Hayk - to vote only for one candidate

Hovsep - one should have limited numbers of posters

Meetings

Aram - I think there should be closed meetings on a weekly basis and one public meeting per month + we can do surveys to know how what opinions other students have for the topics that we discussed

Hovhannes - I suggest doing 2 meetings per week

Robert - All of the meetings can be public and we can also have some "secret" meetings. And we can also organize some with graduate SC (if it's needed)

Gurgen - I think there should be some open meetings but open for not only the students, but also for administration or/and faculty

Hilda - I think there should be some public meetings

Constitutional Amendments

Aram - I think for accepting or not accepting the amendments 75% of us should agree on doing it on one or another way

Robert - As we are just 12 people in here I think all of us should agree to accept the amendment or not

Hilda - Amendments can be made on every midyear

Hayk - I think there is just a little part of students who take the SC constitution and its' amendments seriously

Hovhannes - I think we should be the only ones to decide which amendments should be accepted and which ones should not. I think no other students should decide that instead of us.

Garine - students voice must be counted

Budget

Bonny - every cent used from the budget must be recorded text (Garine will provide)

Lana and Hilda running the meeting next time.

Meeting adjourned at 17:31.
